Heritage

Vijaya raje Govt. Girls P.G. College, Morar was established in the year 1963. At that time, it was a part of Morar Cantonment. The campus in which college was running, was known as army barrack.

New Building Structures were built in place of old. New Structure of Administrative Building was raised but and old structure of 1883 is still standing by the side of it. This old structure tells its own archaeological importance because its history is about 140 Years old.

The base of old structure is rectangular but, on the top, it was attempted to build circular. It was made of stones but without decoration & design. There is an Inscription of April 1883 on stone of this structure. The name of Y. Subro Naidu as a supervisor is written on a stone on this structure. This structure was used as a treasury room during British rule. It is a great pride of the college that it has a building of heritage.

Report on peacock friendly College Campus

Campus of Vijaya raje Govt. Girls P.G. College Morar, Gwalior is Known for the Presence of Peacocks. College has developed a system to feed and protect the national bird. Mr. Vijay Singh Bhadoriya, an employee of the college, takes care of the National Bird peacock. He has been feeding peacocks for last 15 years. There are approximate 35 Peacocks in the Campus. 15 are male Known as Peacocks and Rest are female known as Peahens. Mr. Bhadoriya has given names to peacocks as Mona, Kiran, Cheeku, Sheru, Sonam & Chamcham. Whenever he calls with name, they come to him. Maize, Rice, & Wheat are provided to feed them. Tablets of flour of these grains also are served to them every day. According to Mr. Bhadoriya a kid of a peacock becomes mature & colourful in 3 Years, by which it can be identified either as a male or female. Peacocks are highly loving & aggressive as well. Peacocks are possessive about their place. They do not allow other peacocks to enter in their area. A kid of a peacock begins to dance in two years. Thus, it can be identified as a male one.
